RESULTS TELL

There Can Be No Doubt About the Results in Earlington

Results tell the tale.
All doubt is removed.
The testimony of an Earlington citizen.
Can be easily investigated.
What better proof can be had,
Mrs. Henry Clements, Earlington, Ky., says: "I was in such great pain from kidney trouble that I had to scream aloud. The pains seemed more than I could endure. I do not know what caused the trouble. My back was so sore and lame that I had to catch hold of chairs when walking. My limbs were swollen and my sight became affected. I was nervous and dizzy and my head ached nearly all the time. One day a relative called on me and asked me if I had ever tried Doan's Kidney Pills. She said that if three boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills did not do any good, she would pay for them and insisted so persistently that I at last got some. They made me feel much better in every way.
I believe that they saved my life.
I am now entirely cured and enjoying better health than I have for years.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name — Doan's — and take no other.

"A Real Road Engineer" (Courier Journal)

An interesting article in a recent number of Collier's Weekly relates to the work of Singleton H. Kimmel, as road engineer for Henderson county.

Mr. Kimmel, has been in office about one year. Prior to that time he was for sixteen years engineer for the city of Henderson. When the state held an examination for road engineers Mr.
Kimmel passed with the highest credits made by any applicant.
When he went into office "the only records he found were the checkbook stubs showing the sums paid out by his predecessors." When he decided to have the steel bridges painted nobody could give him a list of them.

He searched the records in the records in the Clerk's office and "made handbooks of bridge records and descriptions of all the roads. He also got a topographical map of the county. It was made by the national Government in 1907, but until 1912 the Henderson county officials did not know it existed."

Mr. Kimmel installed an up-to-date system of bookkeeping and now "a record of everything from the largest expenditure of money to the complete of individual citizens is kept in alphabetical order." Under the old system of maintenance some of the contractors had been talking a greater mileage than they could care for properly. "Mr.
Kimmel listed the roads in sections and refused to let any contractor have more than thirty miles." He also let the contractors know that they would be expected to earn their money.
They took him at his word and "all of them have done better work this year than they ever did before."

A number of cases are mentioned where Mr. Kimmel has saved the county money. In one instance a shipment of culvert piping was found to be 4 per cent short. The agent, when brought to account said: "You are the first county engineer that ever used a tape line on our stuff. When a washout was to be repaired and a veteran contractor made a bid of $350 the engineer refused to cry the bid.
The work finally was done for $60."

Henderson county is paying its road engineer $2,200 a year, but he is earning the money. He has substituted system for slipshod methods and he is seeing that the county gets something for the money it pays out for road maintenance. This is the advantage of having a competent engineer. The article in Collier's referred to Mr. Kimmel as a "real road engineer," and the description seems to fit.

twelve years experience in city newspaper work and may be dependent upon to supply this special news in a most attractive and satisfying form.

We have already cordial expressions of approval of this plan from Earlington pastors and feel confident that this new departure will be heartily received by our readers generally.

The Bee is also taking a fresh start in the publication of local church, school and social news and we shall hope to cover this field to the satisfaction of our patrons and friends.

The first special Missionary news to the Bee, is released for Oct. 21, and will appear in these columns on that date which is next Tuesday.

Fault.

Disagreeable people always must be exaggerated. It seems, until they occupy much more than their allotted space in the world.

Hookworm Needed Also.

"See that measuring worm crawling up my skirt?" cried Mrs. Bjens.
"That's a sign I'm going to have a new dress." "Well, let him make it for you," growled Mr. Bjens. "And while he's about it, have him send a hookworm to do you up the back I'm tired of the job."

Real Friend.

There is one friend who will never fail you while you have hands to move and a brain to plan. In your dreariest hours she will be your sweet refuge, and in times of prosperity she will guard you from "the pride which goeth before a fall." She will bring you long nights of restful sleep at the end of your busy days; and when other friends grow careless or disdainful, she will absorb you more and more.
Her name is Work, and neither the highest nor the lowest can be happy for long without her.

"Thou Madest Me for Thyself."

O thou God Omnipotent, who so carest for every one of us, as if thou caredest for him alone; and so for all, as if all were but one! To thee will I intrust whatsoever I have received from thee. So shall I lose nothing.
Thou madest me for thyself, and my heart is restless until it repose in thee. Amen.—St. Augustine.
